

Teachers Advancing Civic Learning (TACL)

Why join Teachers Advancing Civic Learning?

- Form deeper relationships with peers, network with those at other schools, and hear from those who have been successful in advocating for civic and history learning.
- Build skills and leverage resources for engaging decision makers at the national, state, and local levels through synchronized and asynchronous trainings, seminars, and modules.
- Work directly with leading organizations in the civic learning field.
- Be part of the larger movement to advance civic education.
- Model civic behavior for your students.

Our purpose

To build a grassroots network of educators trained and empowered to advance and strengthen civic learning through policy at the local, state, and national levels

Ways we will support you

- Providing access to free tools and resources;
- Offering a set of trainings to help you feel comfortable in advancing high-quality civic learning through policy at the local, state, and national levels;
- Connecting you with peer and organizations working toward the same goal; and
- Informing you of emerging policy opportunities

Why we need you

Educators continue to be among our nation's most trusted messengers, and can speak first-hand to what's needed in the classroom and for our nation's students. With your stories, partnership, and voices, we can unite to elevate civic learning and strengthen our nation for generations to come.
